A few of the major benefits of iDirres

Here are our pick of the major benefits of iDirres. There are many more besides so don't forget to ask what else is available to help your business!

Instant access to customer records

iDirres allows for rapid scanning and filtering of information: you can find a customer's details quickly and easily every time saving you time.
With greater speed and greater accuracy you get greater economy.

Organised administration

Organise yourself and your business: everybody can see the most up-to-date customer information all of the time. Reduce the time spent on basic administration tasks with our reliable, efficient, complete and integrated system. Because iDirres uses one database you have one source of customer details, one version of your sales and one definitive version of your company's performance!

Sell online (e-commerce)

Increase your business presence without advertising and make sales even when you're not there. The world's economy is the now the Internet, with its global market and free advertising. Your business needs the most outstanding solution available to commerce that will save you time and increase your sales potential with greater customer satisfaction. With our linked stock control system your customers know that when they see stock on your shopping cart you really do have it to sell. Your customers will not delay that crucial decision to buy from you and consequently your important turnover is not delayed.

Low cost

iDirres is available with monthly subscription. Our capable, clever and uniquely useable product will save time and money, allowing you more time to make more sales, and it reduces the investment you need to make on software for your business.
iDirres costs from 45p per day per user!

Wide choice of options

In a world with many possibilities you need a single response. With many high performance features not found in software for the price, iDirres is flexible, convenient and easy to use.
Remember: iDirres is ideal for every purpose because of its application of consistency.

Stock management

Unsold and stored stock is wasted capital, so turn your unproductive capital into productive revenue by reducing stock. With iDirres you can use our versatile package to make stock variances vanish and make accuracy a priority. Because the stock system is linked to the online store you can be sure that you have no more customers waiting because goods have been sold when actually they are out of stock.

Multi site system

Introduce to your business a simple idea with huge potential to help it! Every copy of iDirres has a combined calendar that allows your team to share appointments and organisational information instantly. With iDirres combined diary you don't have the expense of other systems, and with our help you can turn empty hours into productive minutes.
